

Change A Kid's Life!

PROMPTS FOR DEEPER DISCUSSION:

1. Does Krystal's life remind you of a student you currently have or had in the past? How so?
2. Why do you think some of our kids with the most challenging home lives are the ones who are "always smiling"?
3. What do you think Krystal needs most from her teachers right now?

SIMPLE LESSONS:

1. Greet your kids at the door.
2. Sometimes kids need grace more than they need consequences.
3. Conversations about life can be more important than conversations about content.
4. All kids do not have the same childhood.
5. Please, for the love of God, just give the kid a pencil.
